Marrakech
April 28-30, 2023

CONFIRMED SPEAKERS
Zheng-Yi CHEN Harvard Medical School, Mass Eye and Ear, USA
Wade CHIEN Johns Hopkins School of Medicine, USA
Gabriel CORFAS Kresge Hearing Research Institute, USA
Jeffrey HOLT Harvard Medical School, USA
Thomas LENARZ Hannover Medical School, Germany
Charles LIBERMAN Harvard Medical School, USA
Federico MINGOZZI Immunology Department, Spark Therapeutics, USA
Yann NGUYEN AP-HP Pitié Salpêtrière, Sorbonne University, France
Natalie LOUNDON AP-HP Necker-Sick Children, France
Shin-Ichi USAMI Shinshu University School of Medicine, Japan
Vincent VAN ROMPAEY Faculty of Medicine and Health Sciences, University of Antwerp, Belgium
Isabelle MOSNIER AP-HP Pitié Salpêtrière, Sorbonne University, France
Charles DELLA SANTINA Johns Hopkins Cochlear Implant Center, Baltimore, USA
Christine PETIT Institut de l’Audition/Institut Pasteur, France
Nils GUINAND Clinical Neurosciences, University Hospital, Switzerland
Athanasia WARNECKE Department of Otorhinolaryngology, Head and Neck Surgery Hannover Medical School, Germany
Michael R. BOWL University College London Ear Institute, United Kingdom
Erwin VANWYK Radboud University Medical Center, Netherlands

TOPICS
• Hearing aids for severe deafness: challenges and limitations
• Robotic assistant in cochlear implant surgery
• Probing the residual hearing during surgery
• Challenges and perspective of cochlear implantation in morphologic abnormalities cochlea
• Clinical characterization of hearing & balance disorders, what next steps?
• Advancing tools for genetic screening, clinical investigations and diagnosis
• Preclinical models of hearing and balance disorders
• Next generation gene therapy for deafness and balance disorders
• Regenerative and drug-based therapies for hearing impairment
• Clinical trials for inherited and/or acquired hearing loss
• Therapy product development and manufacturing for inner ear therapeutics

Abstract submission
Deadline: March 15, 2023